Army beats Navy 20-8 in 2nd meeting

By Stan Williamson
Scout Staff

Fort Huachuca's Army team won Friday's gridiron match against Navy 20-8, making it two for two in what will become an annual event here.

Rumors about a pending transfer to a weather station in Alaska for Army's team coach and quarterback, Jeff Couch, have been proven false, and he was warmly embraced by his fellow NCOs and officers after the game.

The first half of play started as a defensive battle between the two squads. With less than six minutes remaining in the half, Couch called a pass play and zeroed in on receiver Jim Janson. With outstretched arms, Janson pulled the pigskin from the air and crossed the goal line for the first of Army's points. A two-point conversion attempt failed, but Army was ahead 6-0 at the end of the 20-minute half.

During the halftime activities, a name was drawn for a field goal kicking contest. Spectators had donated $1,334 at a $1 apiece for tickets giving them a chance to win half of the money collected, $667. Pvt. Jose Tave, Company B, 305th MI Bn., squared off for the 30-yard field goal attempt. Tave, split the uprights to claim his prize. Later, Tave said he had never played football, but has played soccer all of his life.

When action resumed for the second half, Army quickly added to their lead with Gridiron action on Bujalski Field, Friday, was fast, furious, and fun for all (or at least most) players and fans. Above, Navy runner, Marlon Moore finds himself surrounded by Army defenders. a first possession score off a 59-yard bomb, followed by a successful two-point conversion. Score: 14-0.

Navy's points came in the second half, when John Rocha crossed the end zone for six and Marlon Moore slipped passed the Army defense for a two-point conversion, bringing the score to 14-8.

The Navy team threatened again getting within a few feet of the end

Navy's Midshipmen 30, Army's Black Knights 28, in 101st meeting

Navy's quarterback, Brian Broadwater ran for 114 yards, scored a touchdown and passed for a score as the Midshipmen from Annapolis, Md. avoided a winless season by beating the Black Knights from West Point, 30-28 Saturday.

Although it's been a trying season for the Midshipmen, by beating Army they avoided only the third winless season in the history of the Navy's football program. The 1883 Navy team went 0-1 and the 1948 squad finished 0-8-1.

Army's comeback in the fourth quarter came up short when on on-side kick with 2:44 left on the clock gave the ball to Navy. The Army defense held Navy and force them to try for a field goal with 1:28 remaining, but Navy retained the ball when the kicker was run into by the defenders. This allowed the Midshipmen to run out the clock.

Looking for their first win since last year's Army-Navy game, the Midshipmen, with an 0-10 season record, built a 20-point lead late in the third quarter and held on to beat the Black Knights, who committed five turnovers. Navy lost the ball twice.

Army, who came into the game with a record of 1-10, used two fourth-quarter touchdown passes by Curtis Zervic to come within two points (28-30) with 2:44 left. But, an on-side kick failed and Navy retained possession when the Black Knights were called for running into the kicker on a 43-yard field goal try with 1:29 to go.

The victory gave Midshipmen two straight wins in the series for the first time since 1982-83, but Army still holds a 48-46-7 lead.

zone, but the Army’s mule-headed players stubbornly held the line as the Navy offense sputtered after three missed passes into the end zone.

Above, Army’s Goliath meets Navy’s David (Marvin Whitehorn, USMC), but the results didn’t follow the biblical theme. On this play, Army opted for a wide out pass down the right side line while Navy sent Whitehorn in to rush the passer. Needless to say ... the pass was completed.

The final touchdown came with less than a minute remaining on the clock. Army got the ball back from the Navy squad and began a drive to the goal running time off the clock while steadily closing in on the end zone. With four-seconds remaining, Army’s Sterling Greene scored making it 20-8 at the end.

Locally, the Army’s “Black Knights” had another victory in the book, giving them a 2-0 record in the battle of the services.

After the game one of the players was overheard saying, “Just wait until next year.”

Above, players on the Navy team are “up and at em” at the snap of the ball as Army tries, and fails, to make a first down. For nearly 15 minutes both teams were scoreless in the first of two 20-minute halves, when Army put up the first six points on a pass to receiver Jim Janson.

Each time the Army team scored a touchdown in Friday’s Army-Navy game, soldiers along the sidelines would rush onto the field and offer a dozen pushups to their comrades on the playing field.

Third annual Jingle Bell Jog provides unusual holiday fun

By Tanja M. Linton
Media Relations Officer

Grab your reindeer and fire up the sleigh! The jolly elves at the 309th Military Intelligence Battalion invite you take part in the third annual Jingle Bell Jog Saturday at Chaffee Parade Field.

Race day registration begins at 8 a.m. and the race begins at 9 a.m.

The Jingle Bell Jog offers a wide variety of events for reindeer and non-reindeer participants alike. There’s even an event for Santa!

Participants can take part in the 2K fun run/walk. All children aged 12 years and under who complete the 2K course will receive a ribbon.

Runners may also choose to take on the 5K course. Individual trophies will be awarded to first place overall male and female winners as well as awards for first through third place finishers in a variety of age groups.

Teams are also encouraged to take part in the 5K race. Teams must be made up of one female and four male runners and the group must start and finish as a team.

The highlight of the Jingle Bell Jog is the sleigh race. A minimum of four to a maximum of eight “reindeer” (pullers) and one “Santa” riding in or on the sleigh are permitted. No motorized vehicles are permitted. Although not necessarily rewarded, creativity in this event is greatly appreciated by the audience.

The fee for the Jingle Bell Jog is $1 per individual per event. In the case of team entries, each participant must pay $1.

A jolly time is guaranteed to one and all who participate, but more importantly, the Jingle Bell Jog helps worthy causes. Proceeds benefit the Fort Huachuca Giving Tree and food bank programs. Donations of new unwrapped children’s toys, canned goods or cash will also be accepted.

For more information call (520) 533-6729 or email 1st Sgt. David Owen at Owendc@hua.army.mil.

DESERT LANES

FORT HUACHUCA • ARIZONA

New Manager at Desert Lanes

The Directorate of MWR and Desert Lanes Bowling Center, would like to welcome Randy Carter, as our new Bowling Center Manager. Carter reported to duty at the Bowling Center on Nov.30.

Carter comes to us from the Sportsman's Center, where he was the acting business manager, overseeing the retail store, the trap and skeet ranges, the plinker range, and the painball ranges. Before he was at the Sportsman's Center, Carter was in the U.S. Army for 10 years as a Military Policeman.

Randy Carter

Carter is originally from Clarksville, Tenn. He has 28 years of bowling experience. He started bowling at the age of five in the youth leagues and started bowling adult leagues with his father at the age of 15, and has been bowling ABC League competition ever since.

Carter was a member of the All Army Bowling team for three years and became a Professional Bowler two years ago and has bowled in numerous PBA Regional tournaments. He has several 300 games to his credit, including one at Desert Lanes on Fort Huachuca.

Fort Huachuca can look forward to many new and exciting innovations at Desert Lanes Bowling Center.

Desert Lanes Bowling Center, located on Fort Huachuca, is a Brunswick 24-lane house, with automatic scoring and a fully stocked pro shop. The pro shop offers brand named bowling equipment, accessories and clothing.

Desert Lanes is open seven days a week and offers morning, afternoon and evening leagues, a Saturday morning youth league and tournaments; daily open bowling and bumper bowling for the young bowlers.

Video games and a pool table are also available for your enjoyment. Rock 300 is offered every Friday and Saturday nights, with glow in the dark lanes, pins, carpeting, black lights, disco and strobe lights creating a unique and fun atmosphere.

Desert Lanes Bowling Center is a great place for birthday parties, unit functions, promotions parties, casual get togethers or just family fun. Let Desert Lanes assist you in planning your next party. For more information, call 533-2849. LETS GO BOWLING!!!!!!
